FILM & VIDEO PRODUCTION

Egg (2026) · 11.5-minute psychological thriller · Final film, Filmmaking 2

Director, Producer, Co-writer, Lead Actor, Editor, Co-cinematographer

- Directed a team of students, family friends, and a voice actor: bought props and made fake blood, scheduled shoot dates, and chose shoot locations
- Rehired Trent Poe, a voice actor used in TERMINALITY, through Casting Call Club and directed a neighbor's child
- Set up lighting and altered music tracks through Audacity
- Finished film on a tight schedule with most chosen shots filmed on their first takes

TERMINALITY (2025) · 3.5-minute experimental short about dementia · Final project, Electronic & Intermedia Art

Writer, Director, Producer, Actor, Editor, Animator

- Created a Casting Call Club page which drew around 20 submissions; cast and paid the voice actors while directing them online
- Separated a picture of a stinkbug into pieces using Photoshop and animated it in Wondershare Filmora

S.T.P. (unofficial music video for Sublime, 2026) · First project, Filmmaking 2

Director, Cinematographer, Lighting, Actor, Editor; wrote the shot outline

- Conceptualized the film inside a written document covering goals, format, and audience; made an outline with timestamps after pitch review by a professor
- Scouted locations and revised a group scene in a utility tunnel when cast was limited
- Screened publicly at The Movies at Meadville with other Allegheny students' films

Other short films: The Roommates (2026; used a script by a past student as an outline with permission and rewrote it into a psychological thriller), Heretic "Creep" Scene Recreation (2026), Laugh Man (2025; Filmmaking 1 final project; wrote, directed, edited, and played the lead, got permission to film in Allegheny's Gladys Mullenix Black Theatre, and directed a 10-person volunteer audience), contingency (2024; written, shot, and edited in one night)
